First of Prosecutions Growing Out of Failures in K. C. Called in Federal Court

KANSAS CITY, Sept. 13.—Four former officers of the defunct American Union Trust company were placed on trial in the federal court here today on a charge of using the funds to defraud.

The trial is the first of a series of prosecutions growing out of the failure of All Night and Day bank and the closing of the American Union Trust company which had absorbed the bank. Both were Atkins' City institutions.

The men on trial are: George L. Davis, Kansas City attorney; John W. Berry and W. F. Moyer of Kansas City and T. L. Mathis of Tulsa. Henry W. R. Jordan, the organizer of the institutions, also was included in the indictment, but was not arrested. The indictment charged that fraudulent statements of the assets of the trust company were sent through the mails.

It is true that a house can catch a fire, but what's the use?

Since Taking Cardui. After Seven Years of Suffering, Says South Carolina Lady.

Columbia, S. C.—Mrs. L. C. Helmman, of 331 Washington St., of this city, says: "I have received so much benefit from Cardui, I feel like saying a good word for it to every lady I come in contact with, that I think needs it, hoping to help some one to get well, as I did.

I had been sick in bed for a long time with the change of life. The doctor tended me all along, and finally one morning when he came he said he believed I would have to go to the hospital yet. I said No. I then read all of the testimonials in the Ladies' Birth-day Almanac and then I phoned for a bottle of Cardui and commenced taking it. I began to improve from then on. I took five bottles continuously, then off and on for awhile, and I was well and had good health ever since I am glad to say. I have recommended it to a lot of my friends.

I was troubled for seven or eight years before I took Cardui. I think it is the best medicine on earth for female troubles. ... If this testimonial will help some one else you are at liberty to use it if you like."

Begin taking Cardui today. It may be the very medicine you need. Your druggist sells it. Get a bottle from him today—Adv.
